"...He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him." --
Acts 10:38

In this passage, Peter tells people that God was with Jesus when He began his public ministry. God had bestowed the Holy Spirit upon Jesus. God also gives us the Holy Spirit, but we must be open to receive it.
When we have the Holy Spirit in our hearts, we can then share God's love and mercy with others.

Easter Sunday

THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

Acts 10:34a, 37-43 | Col 3:1-4 or 1 Cor 5:6b-8 | Jn 20:1-9

Written by

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Happy Easter! When I think about Easter when I was a child, I admit that many of my memories are centered more around its symbolic trappings: Fannie Mae Easter eggs and peppermint ice cream, my grandma’s table set just so, and unseasonably cold Easter egg hunts. While I may not have yet fully understood the theology of the Resurrection, being at Mass with my family and taking part in the celebratory activities engendered in me the disposition of which the psalmist speaks: This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. Today’s readings invite us to see both the secular and the sacred with new eyes. The fact that Jesus took on our humanity, died and rose again give us a glimpse of the joy that awaits. The simple pleasures we experience at Easter and throughout the year hint at what the Lord has in mind for all of us. In the meantime, we can turn to Jesus for encouragement, with the knowledge that God is present in the ordinary and extraordinary people and events in our daily lives.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

After Mary Magdalene discovers the empty tomb, Simon Peter and “the other disciple” (John) don’t walk – but run to the tomb. I’m struck by the detailed account that follows. Peter “saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place.” The words that follow seem contradictory: “Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.” Their understanding would grow in the hours and days that followed. These early witnesses would then share the Good News of Jesus’ resurrection, often at the cost of their own lives, building up the Church that endures today. Like the disciples, we, too, are commissioned to witness to our faith in the risen Jesus, sharing this life-changing reality with others through our words and actions.

PRAY As this Easter season begins, we celebrate Christ’s triumph over death, yet mourn that death still comes so violently for so many around the world. Make an extra effort – an extraordinary effort – this week to pray for peace in the world.

Jesus Cries, "I Thirst!"

Will you quench His thirst for love?

--- Fr. Nate's Update ---

Fellow Saint-in-the-Making, Happy Easter!

Lord Jesus Christ, thank you for baptizing Emma and Greysen Peruski; please grow the grace of baptism in our newest sister and brother in Christ, and may their parents and godparents be shining examples of love for You, Lord, and of their neighbor. May we support and protect them with our prayers and example, as his parish family!

Some Holy Humor: One Easter a priest and a taxi driver both died and went to heaven. St. Peter was at the Pearly gates waiting for them. 'Come with me,' said St. Peter to the taxi driver. The taxi driver did as he was told and followed St Peter to a mansion. It had everything you could imagine from a bowling alley to an Olympic size pool. 'Oh my word, thank you,' said the taxi driver.

Next, St. Peter led the priest to a rough old shack with a bunk bed and a desk. 'Wait, I think you are a little mixed up,' said the priest. 'Shouldn't I be the one who gets the mansion? After all, I am a priest, I preached God's word and helped many people!'

'Yes, that's true.' St Peter rejoined, 'But during your Easter sermons people slept. When the taxi driver drove, everyone prayed.'

Happy Easter! I hope to visit my parents (mom can make a fantastic coffee cake; dad can make a great breakfast) and some siblings and their kids to celebrate the only event that gives us hope to rise from our graves at the end of the world, the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. Thank Him today for dying and rising for you! Surrender your life to God our Father today and every day, as Jesus teaches us to!

Sprinkling Rite; Baptisms at Easter: On Easter Sunday, the Sprinkling Rite follows the Homily and Renewal of Baptism Promises. On the other Sundays of Easter, the Sprinkling Rite is at the beginning of Mass. As you feel the Blessed Water, pray a quick prayer like, "God renew the graces of my baptism!"

Fr. Paul Turner explains, "On the other Sundays of the Easter season, the Rite of Blessing and Sprinkling of Holy Water fittingly takes place. It is positioned at the start of Mass as a reminder of Baptism. Since Baptism is the beginning of our participation in the risen life of Christ, it is especially appropriate to celebrate Baptism at Easter, and to recall it on the Sundays of the season, when we especially celebrate the day of the week Christ rose from the dead. This is why the sprinkling rite may be used on any Sunday of the year and why it is never recommended for weekdays. Jesus rose on Sunday, and if possible, we celebrate Baptism on that day as well." ---<http://pastoralliturgy.org/resources/0703WaterAndPromises.php>

From Book "God Acts-We React" by Msgr. Thomas Rowland

"...You have free will. You must offer yourself. No one can die for you, you must die your own baptismal death. Will you give yourself to me? Will you unite your gift of yourself with my gift of myself, fill out my gift that together we can offer ourselves to God the Father?" [to be continued]

Please Continue to Pray... “Heavenly Father, please give the grace of deeper conversion to Jesus Christ to our nine children preparing for First Holy Communion next weekend; to those received into Full Communion with the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil: John Shetler; Christian Kish; and to those who received Baptism, Confirmation, and First Holy Communion: Kayla Spencer; Alex Baynton; Emma Baynton; Brett Kish; Stephanie Munandi. In Jesus’ Name, Amen!”

Soup Cook Appreciation: Thank you to all the soup cooks for your delicious and nutritious soups!

Listening Session Appreciation: Thank you to all who attended a Listening Session, and thank you to Kevin Romzek for leading them! Summaries of your comments will assist parish leaders, bishop, and the pope in discerning what the Holy Spirit is saying to the Church.

50 Ways to Talk to God by Meg Hunter-Kilmer: piercedhands.com/50-ways-talk-god

[#41-50] “...Try one... You have nothing to lose. You have everything to gain....

---Rock out to some passionate praise music—“Lord I Need You,” “How He Loves,” “Amazed.”

---Pray some intense hymns—“Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silent,” “It Is Well,” “When I Survey the Wondrous Cross,” “Come Thou Fount.”

---Pray some intense poems— John Donne’s “Sonnet XIV,” Francis Thompson’s “Hound of Heaven,” St. John Henry Newman’s “The Pillar of the Cloud.”

---Do a daily examen.

---When you’re suffering, thank God for all he suffered for you. Ask him to use your pain for his glory and the salvation of souls.

---“Lord Jesus Christ, son of the living God, have mercy on me, a sinner.” Over and over until you mean it.

---Pray a scriptural rosary.

---Treat the Mass like the sacrifice it is. The whole thing is about Jesus giving himself completely for you, so listen to the readings like a challenge to surrender. Then offer your joys to him when the priest offers the bread. Offer your sorrows when he offers the wine. Offer your whole self when Jesus gives himself to you in the Eucharist. Come out changed.

---At the end of the day, talk to Jesus about everything that happened that day. Thank him, beg his forgiveness, ask for strength for tomorrow.

---Go through the motions if it’s the best you can do. It’s better than nothing.

“Maybe none of these will fit you. I’m writing as an uber-emotional, academically-oriented woman. If you try these—multiple times—and you’re still not feeling it, try something else. Ask your priest, your best friend, the random lady at Mass who seems so pious. Share your suggestions and struggles below [in comments section of blog]. Part of the problem is that we so often don’t talk about any of this so nobody realizes that nobody has it together. Then we decide that we’re just not one of the lucky few chosen to be saints and we settle for the bare minimum—a handful of obligations with no heart.”

“Christianity is so much more than a list of rules and pious practices, friends. It’s a relationship, a love like none you’ve ever known before. It’s the meaning of life, the God of the universe made man for you. Please don’t be content with empty prayer and an unabandoned heart. Ask for more. He always answers that prayer.”

Let Us Pray: (Pope’s APRIL Intention): “...for health care workers who serve the sick and the elderly, especially in the poorest countries; may they be adequately supported by governments and local communities.”

(Ven. Sheen’s Spiritual Adoption Prayer): “Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of [name], the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.”

God loves and thirsts for you. I love and pray for you. Pray for me! -Fr. Nate
