In This Sunday's Readings:

"For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be." - Luke 12:34

The world and the culture in which we live tells us that worldly things are our treasure and that we should work to build and accumulate "things." But Jesus tells us that heaven is our real treasure. It is easy to focus on material rather than spiritual treasures. Take time to think about and evaluate how much time and energy that you put into accumulating worldly treasure versus heavenly treasure. What can you change in your life to help you focus more on the things of heaven?

Jesus Cries, “I Thirst!”

Will you quench His thirst for love?

- Fr. Nate's Update -

Fellow Saint-in-the-Making, Happy Lord's Day!

[Painting of the Sacred Heart by a parish family member's deceased relative; Below: congrats to Jeff Maurer and Adrainne Keller! Heavenly Father, may they be strengthened to lay down their lives for one another, in imitation of Christ, through the sacramental graces of Matrimony celebrated on July 16, 2022]

Some Holy Humor: Feeling overworked and overwhelmed just a month after taking a new position, the assistant pastor accused his superior of misleading him about the workload. “I specifically asked whether the hours were long, and you said no,” he griped. “They aren’t long at all,” said the pastor with a smile. “Just the standard 60 minutes apiece!”

Air Conditioning at St. John: I adjusted all the AC units to make sure that the louvers blow horizontal rather than down on people. Also, I set them all to “low” speed so they’re not as noisy.

Highlight from Made for Mission: Parish leaders are reading this book by Tim Glemkowski and will be discussing it in order to discover God’s Vision for our parish. You are invited to get the book and read it with us. Here’s a highlight, “I have personally seen too many parishes trying to stem the tide of declining membership by simply tweaking tactics. Too often, unsure of what else to do, parishes seek to fix a much deeper problem with surface-level solutions. “Let’s try a new program! A different curriculum! That new Bible study! A few more greeters at Mass! A new mission statement!” The problem is that none of these solutions addresses the core problem. When parishes focus their renewal efforts around things like “engagement,” they are putting Band-Aids on a much deeper wound.” (Ch. 1)

Wisdom from a Saint: “Graciously let everyone steal your time, your work, your preferences. But your heart will belong to Jesus and to self-denial through love.” St. Peter Eymard, Memorial August 2

“Let Us Pray...”

(Pope's July Intention): We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people; may their experience and wisdom help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility.

(Bishop Sheen's Spiritual Adoption Prayer): Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of [name], the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.

(Prayer for Vocations) Heavenly Father, we “beg for laborers for the harvest.” Raise up vocations to holy matrimony, priesthood, permanent diaconate, consecrated life, missionary life, and ecclesial lay ministry from Good Shepherd Parish. Help married couples to discern Your Will regarding openness to life, including through foster care and adoption. Amen.

God loves you and thirsts for you. I love you and pray for you. Pray for me. -Fr. Nate

“People ask me: ‘What will convert America and save the world?’ My answer is prayer. What we need is for every parish to come before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament in Holy Hours of prayer.” -St. Teresa of Calcutta

Eucharistic Adoration is praying in the “Real Presence” of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. It is a loving response to Jesus’ words, “Could you not watch one hour with Me?” (Matthew 26:40). It quenches His thirst for our love, and our thirst for His love.

Where: St. John Church, 4470 N. Washington St., Ubly, MI 48475

When:

Every Friday: Adoration begins with Exposition following the 9:00am Mass on Fridays and continues until Benediction at 10:25am.

First Fridays: Adoration continues after Mass until 4:00pm. Join us for the Divine Mercy Chaplet at 3:45pm followed by Benediction.

First Friday Adorers Needed: Our goal is to have at least two people interceding before our Lord each hour, praying for our parish families, for their prayer requests, for parish leaders, for the conversion of sinners, an end to the war in Ukraine, abortion, poverty, etc. Three adorers are needed currently to fill three of those hour slots. To sign up, please call Lori Uhl 586-709-8391 or the office 989-658-8824.

Never been to Adoration? Stop in to visit Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament for five minutes, and let Him love you!

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I remember the first time I moved: A suitcase or two fit in the back of my dad's lime-green Delta 88 as my parents dropped me off at college. Four years later, it took that plus a large black chest. The next move required a U-Haul; then came marriage, a family, and a moving van. I may not store my treasure in barns like the man in last week's readings, but at times it feels that way. It's natural to accumulate more "stuff" as we grow older. But in today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that we won't take any of it with us when we make the move to our final destination. Rather than focus on our possessions, he encourages us to be vigilant, remain faithful, and live in service to others. In doing so, we will store up "an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach nor moth destroy. For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be."

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Few things throw me into a panic like unexpected company. I have taken to at least cleaning the kitchen counter and bathrooms before going on a trip so the house will look presentable should something befall me and others have to come in with food or aid! We truly do not know the day or the hour, and the Gospel today encourages us to apply a little of that spring cleaning to our souls. Each day presents a new opportunity to prepare for the day we meet Jesus. If we've been out of touch, we can get reacquainted through prayer. If we feel weighed down by things we've done or said, we can bring them to the Lord through the sacrament of reconciliation. We can witness to our belief in God's promise of eternal life by putting people above possessions and supporting one another as we seek to live as Jesus taught us.

ACTION Today's psalm response is: "Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own." Count your blessings and write a few of them down, giving thanks to God for each of them.
