In This Sunday's Readings

"... your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father." Matthew 5:16

Good works and generosity are noticed – and others often are inspired to do similar things. When we serve others through our stewardship of our gifts of time and treasure, we model a generous and grateful lifestyle to others. However, we are not to call great attention to our generosity, but rather give of ourselves as recognition of the gifts God gave us. Others will recognize genuine generosity and humility.

Let Us Give Thanks!

THE FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Is 58:7-10 | 1 Cor 2:1-5 | Mt 5:13-16

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

It's amazing how one interaction can brighten an otherwise gloomy day. I love a nice sunrise on a wintry morning or a crackling fire on an autumn night. But whatever the weather, nothing quite lights up my day like a shared laugh with a friend, a snippet of real conversation with my teen son, or a hot cup of coffee delivered by my husband. In today's reading, Jesus continues the Sermon on the Mount, telling the disciples: "Your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father." We, too, can be light for others - through good deeds large and small, ordinary and extraordinary. As we go about our days, we can ask the Lord to show us how to serve others. We will have days when we don't feel up to the task but, like St. Paul, we can ask the Holy Spirit to light the way.

You are the salt
of the earth, you are the light of the world.”

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus used images that resonate with us as much as they did with his followers 2,000 years ago: salt and light. Salt serves many purposes, preserving our food and giving it flavor, for example. And of course we cannot live without light. In today's Gospel, Jesus tells the disciples: "You are the salt of the earth ... You are the light of the world." Like the disciples we, too, can be salt and light for others by giving witness to our faith. What that involves will be different for each of us. For ideas, we can turn to today's reading from Isaiah, which calls us to share our bread, shelter the oppressed and clothe the naked. In doing so, our light "shall break forth like the dawn."

ACTION We all know people we'd call "the salt of the earth." Who are those people in your life? Make a list of the characteristics they exhibit or actions they take that you can learn from and try to imitate. Ask God for the grace to see and do likewise for his glory.

Lay Ecclesial Ministry Application Period

February 1 – May 15 - Do you want a deeper relationship with God? Do you want to learn more about your Catholic faith? Do you feel you are being called to more? Have you felt a need for some Adult Faith Formation? Perhaps God is tugging at your heart. The Lay Ecclesial Ministry Formation may be the answer to your call! The application period for the 2023-2024 academic year for Lay Ecclesial Ministry Formation is from February 1 through May 15. Seminars meet monthly, September through May. The seminars are on Friday evenings and all-day Saturday, one time per month, so it is perfect for most working people. We also offer over-night lodging. For more information and any questions, please contact the Coordinator of Lay Ecclesial Ministry Formation, Deb Popielarz, at dpopielarz@diosag.org or call 989.797.6660.

Worldwide Marriage Encounter

Discover all of this and more on a Worldwide Marriage Encounter experience on March 24-26 in Saginaw or April 14-16 in Grass Lake. Apply today at wwme.org or contact Chris & Darla at 517.667.0433 for more information.

Walking with Moms in Need

Due to the passing of Proposal 3 to legalize abortion up to the moment of birth, the fight to protect the dignity of life has intensified. Walking with Moms in Need Ministry is active in several parishes in each of the 5 Vicariates throughout the diocese. The most important task of the ministry is to accompany women as they face pregnancy, helping them to feel supported, loved, and welcome, and in creating a list of community resources that will be available when a woman in crisis needs help and support. These resources provide assistance to women making the decision to choose life for her child. For more information to begin Walking with Moms in Need in your parish, please contact Beth at 989.797.6655 or bbauer@diosag.org or visit the website: <https://saginaw.org/moms>.
