In This Sunday's Readings

Do nothing out of selfishness or out of vainglory; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves each looking out not for his own interests, but also for those of other." Philippians 2:3-4

Today, it can be easy to look out for and provide for ourselves first and foremost. But we are called to care for others just as we care for ourselves. We are all children of God, and we should strive to treat one another as brothers and sisters.

*Why Does Our Parish Exist?
To make disciples who spread the Gospel:*

CREATED - CAPTURED - RESCUED - RESPONSE

Dear Saint-in-the-Making,
Happy October, month of the Holy Rosary! This month, besides praying the rosary daily, please celebrate the feast of a beloved saint who is my favorite saint, St. Therese of Lisieux ("the Little Flower"). Ever heard the Catholic prayer, "Little Flower, in this hour, show your power"? St. Therese of Lisieux (1873-1897) is one of the greatest saints of modern times. Her feast day is October 1.

Little Therese often sends roses to those who are asking her to pray for them! She promised before she died that after she died, she would "let fall a shower of roses" on those who sought her heavenly intercession. She has sent me many roses, and made me an unknowing bringer of roses to others who were asking her for a rose! Here's a prayer; let me know when she sends you a rose!

O Little Therese of the Child Jesus, please pick for me a rose from the heavenly gardens and send it to me as a message of love. St. Therese, help me to always believe as you did, in God's great love for me, so that I might *imitate your "Little Way" each day.

Amen.*

Poem by Yours Truly: True "Flower Power"

St. Therese is quite the Saint
You may deem her statues quaint
But her "record" after death
Is it "quaint"? No it sure ain't
*

She has helped so many folks
Soldiers, students, sundry blokes
Sending roses from above
She'll send YOU one if you coax
*

Simply ask her for her prayers
She'll pray! Though you're unawares Soon you'll see a sign or two
That for you she loves and cares

A quote from her: "Do you realize that Jesus is there in the tabernacle expressly for you- for you alone? He burns with the desire to come into your heart... don't listen to the demon, laugh at him, and go without fear to receive the Jesus of peace and love..."

I want to inspire, educate, and give joy to those who read my poems. Here's another poem addressing a crisis that the devil is behind, the crisis of identity. If as you're reading a word or phrase jumps out at you, stop reading, and ask the Lord about that word or phrase. Let Him teach you.

Poem by Yours Truly:

You'll Never Know WHO You Are, 'Til You Know WHOSE You Are

Worry, despair, careless heart malnutrition
Low self-esteem, selfish ego-ambition
Pride, envy, sloth, wrath, lust, gluttony, greed
Heart ailments spiritual remedies need

To grow in one's heart, these diseases require
A grim precondition, a foundation dire Identity error, confusion, or mix-up Believing untruths about self! What's the fix-up?

The "father of lies" spews a million deceptions
Apparently harmless, but Trojan inceptions
"You are what you do", "what you think", "say", or "feel"
"Define your reality"; "Who knows what's real?"

What antidote is there, or immunization?
The answer is found in divine revelation
Identity truth heals identity error
Truth captured in titles from heaven's Truth
Bearer

The Christ! He not only reveals God to us
But also reveals who WE are; that's His aim (Pope John Paul II, Angelus, December 15, 1996)
A human like us in all things but sin's fuss
He teaches us WHO we are through truthful names

These titles, if taken like pills from a doc
Declared every morning, indeed, round the clock
Are known to bring healing and peaceful relief
As antidotes strong to the lies of the "thief" (John 10:10)

If taught in your childhood, these titles might stay Within just your mind, if with them you don't pray Ask God, "Plant Your names for me deep in my heart
As seeds to sprout peace and make lies to depart"

The Lord calls you "Chosen One", "Crown", "My Redeemed"
"Delight", "Oak of Righteousness", "Apple of [My] Eye"
So let "God-esteem" be your true self-esteem
To prove your own worth, you need not! Please don't try

God's own Son names you "Light of the World",
"Friend", and "Bride"
Your identity bought on the Cross when He died
In the Baptism Font, God forever defines you His "Child"! From the enemy's lies, He unblinds you

One's identity comes as a gift from above
So relax! You're a "Son" or a "Daughter" beloved

No tattoos(1), clothes, or skills WHO you are could define Rather, WHOSE does! Declare, "I am [His]; He is mine" (Song of Songs 2:16)

...Better yet, hear Him say in your heart, "You are mine"(2) (Isaiah 43:1)

(1) I'm not suggesting that this is the motive everyone has for getting a tattoo

(2) Full verse: "Thus says the Lord, he who created you...: 'Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine.'"

Josie Gusa's Summer internship

I went to an event with many pro-life presentations by young people who attended a summer internship by Protect Life Michigan, including parishioners Josie and Utah Gusa. Their older sister Haili works for Protect Life Michigan.
I'm proud of them all! Also, Josie is involved in a
Students for Life group.

Josie says, "I appreciate the prayers, encouragement, and financial support. The internship has been a great experience so far! We have had multiple pro-life speakers such as Dr.
Levantino (former abortionist), Seth Drayer, and Emily Albrecht. They have equipped me with many tools to help spread the prolife message. I have also had numerous conversations, and I was able to have 2 partial mind changes so far. I have also been helping with Protect Life Michigan's to Abortion Pills in Pharmacies campaign. I have been calling, texting, and dropping literature. I would encourage you, if you're not already, to boycott CVS, Rite-Aid, and Walgreens. I am excited to continue to grow and learn more!"

10 Practical Tips for Spiritual Warfare

By Craig Berry: craigberrymedia.com/faith/practical-tips-for-spiritual-warfare/

For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood; but against principalities and power, against the rulers of the world of this darkness, against the spirits of wickedness in the high places. - Ephesians 6:12

Many films have been released on the topic of demonic possession, including “The Rite” and “The Last Exorcism” and of course, “The Exorcist”. Many articles have been written about exorcism, but they usually spend a great deal of time explaining how rare ‘demonic possession’ is – and instructing people to not be overly concerned about. Modern secular society is fascinated by the topic, but at the same time, there are many who think things like demons, fallen angels, and Hell to be archaic notions for the unenlightened or feeble-minded.

Let’s be blunt. There is a concerted effort – in fact, a conspiracy – of evil entities focused on dragging souls to Hell. They can be called demons or fallen angels, and are led by a specific angel named Satan or Lucifer. If you don’t believe that the ‘father of all lies’ exists...you should.

They chiefly concern themselves with attacking God’s children who strive to be Holy. They are not too concerned with anyone else, since they already ‘belong’ to the evil one – perhaps not in the sense of possession – but anyone who is not in a state of sanctifying grace is in danger of eternal damnation. Don’t be deceived by talk about fairy tales, Hell is real and it lasts forever.

What many of the recent articles on the subject of demonic forces fail to explain is, how do you practically ‘fight the good fight’ and stay in a state of sanctifying grace? Often, you’ll hear... “stay close to the Sacraments of the Church”. While that’s absolutely true – frequent Confession and reception of the Eucharist are the most powerful weapons we possess – what about on a day-to-day basis when you’re not near a Church? Are there more spiritual weapons at our disposal? Absolutely!

Here are some that have been used and promoted by the Catholic Church and the Saints. NOTE: None of them offer any protection without a resolute belief and faith in the Son of God, Jesus Christ. He, and He alone is the source of all of their power. These are gifts from Heaven which must be cherished and used with reverence.

- The Rosary

- This devotional practice is the spiritual equivalent of an atomic bomb in our war with the enemy. Many Graces are attached to its recitation, and Hell trembles at the name of Mary, the Mother of God.

- Holy Water

- This is a ‘Sacramental’ of the Church and is highly efficacious in dispelling evil spirits. Keeping it in the home and sprinkling it about is a good thing. Saint Teresa of Avila was known to splash Holy Water at demons that would materialize and disturb her during her prayers.

- Blessed Salt

- Sprinkling this about your home, or other areas where evil may be present, is extremely useful.

- Medal of Saint Benedict

- Get one and have it blessed. Wear it about your neck or keep it on your person. The medal actually has a portion of the Roman Ritual of Exorcism inscribed on it in Latin.

- Crucifix
 - All Catholics should have at least one Crucifix hung prominently in their home. It should be blessed and ideally, it should be one that contains a Medal of St. Benedict.
- Home Blessing
 - This is a custom that every Catholic family should be practicing. It has fallen into disuse – so bring it back! Call up your Priest and ask for a Home Blessing. Offer him dinner as well.
- Brown Scapular
 - This is a powerful sacramental. Get enrolled [in the scapular], preferably by a Carmelite, and begin wearing it – now. Faithful observance of the conditions of enrollment comes with a promise by Our Lady of being delivered from purgatory, the Friday following death.
- Prayer of Saint Michael
 - If you believe yourself to be under attack from the enemy, call upon the defender of God's people, Saint Michael the Archangel. [St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.]
- The Holy Name of Jesus
 - In cases of extreme duress, repeat the Holy Name of 'Jesus' – reverently – over and over until whatever persecution you are experiencing passes.
- Mental Images of the Passion
 - While the fallen angels have no control over your Free Will, they do have some preternatural abilities to influence your thoughts. They will silently tempt you, often to impure thoughts, or into dissuading you from some good effort. Construct a mental picture of Our Lord Jesus Christ during His Passion. Focus on His pierced hands or feet, or maybe His carrying of the Cross. Concentrate on His crowning with thorns or scourging at the pillar. You will be amazed at how fast the evil thoughts will flee.

Please keep in mind these last few things...

The spiritual life is difficult. If it were easy, many more would choose it. Take comfort in knowing that Our Loving Father has given us many ways to persevere in Grace. We just need to remember to call upon Him! God permits the devil a certain amount power to disrupt our lives, but only so that we grow in Holiness as we overcome our trials.

These spiritual practices are meant to lead our minds, thoughts, and ultimately our hearts, to loving union with the Almighty Father. And that is what is causing these demons so much distress – we are actively choosing to be with God. We are rejecting their temptations, whatever they may be. With His Sacrifice at Calvary, Jesus has already defeated death and Satan. It is our duty and privilege to call upon Our Lord Jesus when in distress.

Stay close to the Hearts of Jesus and Mary.
