Quickly she said, "Just a minute. Here comes the big ol' pig now!"

Happy Thanksgiving! "Thank God at the Feet of Jesus"

Where are the best places to thank God? A daily Mass reading this past week was the account of the healing of the ten lepers. Only one leper returned to thank God, falling at the feet of Jesus. The best places to praise and thank God are at the feet of Jesus: First, Jesus in our hearts, and Second, Jesus in the Eucharist.

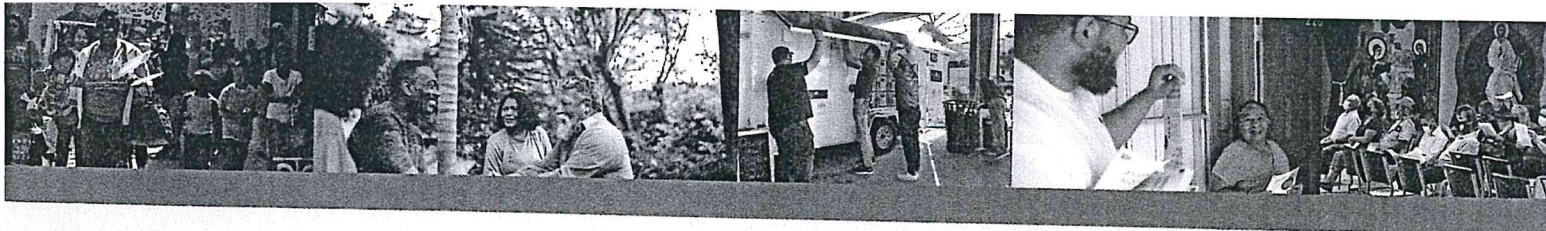

Couldn't this one leper have thanked God anywhere else? Isn't God in his heart? Yes, and maybe he did first thank God in his heart before he returned to the feet of Jesus to thank God, recognizing in Him divine power.

When that Gospel says the leper gave "thanks"; the Greek word for "thanks" used here is "eucharisteo". Sound familiar? It's the basis of the word Eucharist, which means thanksgiving! This word "eucharisteo" is used four times in Luke, and two of those times it is used when Jesus gave "thanks" over the chalice and the bread in the upper room (22:17, 19) at the institution of the Eucharist.

So, first we are called to thank God in our hearts, wherever we are, as soon as we recognize a gift or blessing. Second, we are called to thank God again at the feet of Jesus in the Eucharist.

Jesus is present in the celebration of the Eucharist in four unique ways. He's SPIRITUALLY present in our hearts, He's SPIRITUALLY present in the priest, He's

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT WORKING ON THE MARGINS

LEARN about those living in poverty who are working to improve their communities. • ACT and spread the word about poverty by sharing this flier. • CONNECT with the work of CCHD by supporting the collection. • PRAY for those who benefit from this collection.

For more than 50 years, the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) has supported organizations that combat poverty and improve the lives of people in communities across the United States. Not only do CCHD-funded organizations advocate with civic, business, and community religious leaders to improve access to affordable housing, job and educational opportunities, and rights for immigrants—they also respond quickly to urgent needs when communities experience emergencies.

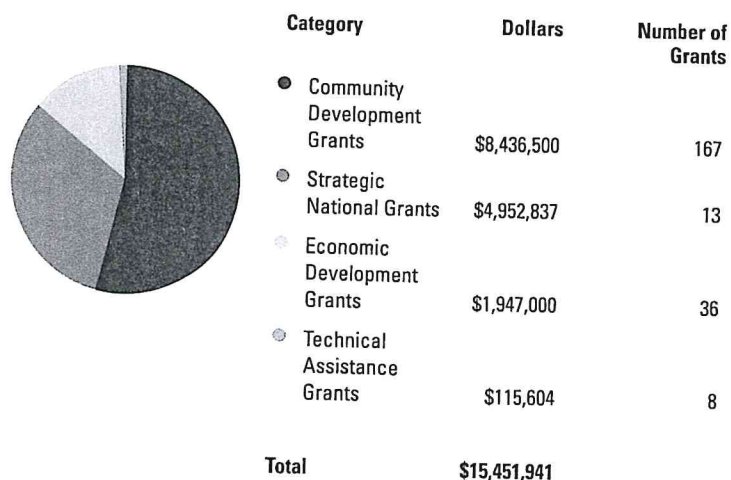

An effective response to natural disasters begins with effective planning before disasters occur. In New Orleans and surrounding areas in southern Louisiana, CCHD is helping Together New Orleans develop a project called Community Lighthouse, which will equip 85 congregations and community organizations with commercial-scale solar power and backup battery storage. This effort will form a network of response centers ready to serve communities in a hurricane or other natural disaster once the solar power equipment is completely installed. By using solar power and backup batteries, the response centers can continue operating in the event of power loss—but they will also be using clean, renewable energy rather than fossil fuels that contribute to climate change and pollution.

When you support CCHD, you help local communities across the country innovate and work together to solve their own unique challenges. Twenty-five percent of your contribution stays in your diocese to support the organizations addressing your community's needs for housing, jobs, and educational opportunities—and for keeping the lights on during a storm.

To learn more about the collection for the CCHD and the way CCHD upholds the moral and social teachings of the Catholic Church, visit www.usccb.org/cchd/collection.

2021-2022 GRANTS

2021 EXPENSES

*Internal grants include a distribution from the CCHD collection for CCHD operations expenses and for the USCCB Justice, Peace, and Human Development's education and outreach program, which includes engaging Catholics in our faith-filled call to address the root causes of poverty.

GEMINI GROUP

SPIRITUALLY present in the Scriptures, but in a unique way, He's present SUBSTANTIALLY in the Holy Eucharist, also called the "Blessed Sacrament". The phrase "Body and Blood" means Christ's entire person, Body, Blood, Soul, Divinity!

Blessed Solanus Casey was a GREAT example of giving thanks both in his heart and at the feet of Jesus in the Eucharist. He said, "We should ever be grateful for and love the vocation to which God has called us... because, after all, what a privilege it is to serve God, even in the least capacity!" Also, Blessed Solanus always told people to "thank God ahead of time", before they received what they were praying for.

<http://denvercatholic.org/thank-god-ahead-time-faith-father-solanus-casey/>:*

"Thank God ahead of time!" said Father Solanus Casey to the parents of sixteen-month-old Elizabeth, a little girl dying of leukemia. "The anxious parents had heard of Father Casey through a relative who was part of a prayer group at the Capuchin monastery in Detroit. "He's a saint, and heals people all the time," the relative assured them. Traveling from their home in Dearborn, Michigan to the Capuchin monastery in Detroit, the Fanning family was seeking a miracle. All medical avenues had been exhausted. The child was pale, would not eat, and so weak she could not walk up the steps to greet the beaming, bearded Capuchin priest who awaited them with a radiant smile.

"After listening patiently to the story of their tragic situation, Father Casey responded with his typical simple wisdom: "Thank God ahead of time!" The Capuchin priest counseled the parents not to let sadness and worry frustrate the designs of the God of mercy. Instead, they should thank God now for the good He would certainly do for their daughter in the future. He then bent down, handed Elizabeth a piece of candy, and whispered to the dying child, "You're going to be all right."

"Upon returning to their home in Dearborn, the specialists at the hospital could not believe Elizabeth was the same child they had seen only days before. All traces of the leukemia had left her. She was alert, healthy and full of life..."

At the Eucharist, whether at Mass or in front of the tabernacle, or at times of Eucharistic Adoration (when Jesus in the Eucharist is placed in a monstrance), we as close to Jesus as possible this side of heaven. This is the best place to thank God, AND the best place to thank God... ahead of time! But first, turn to Jesus in the tabernacle of your heart, and thank God for something, or thank Him ahead of time for answering a certain request in His way. Next, thank Him again at His feet at Mass or Eucharistic Adoration.

To Jesus through Mary,

Love, Fr. Nate
