Dear Saint-in-the-Making,
Happy Father's Day!

May the Lord give you a deeper love for your earthly father this weekend, and deeper gratitude for him whether he is living or deceased. If one's father has died, one may honor him by thanking God for the gift he was; one may help him by offering prayers and Masses for his soul in case he needs it. I am so grateful for my dad. My parents and I began praying morning prayer together on Zoom during Covid. After my mother died, my father and I continue to pray together 3-4x per week. I visit him at least once a month in Ann Arbor. We often talk about our relationship with Jesus and our heavenly Father and heavenly Mother.

My dad's love for God is made visible through his attendance at daily Mass, praying the Liturgy of the Hours, and being Christ's hands and feet as a volunteer at Hope Clinic and at the parish where he brings Holy Communion to those who cannot attend Mass. He loves to spend time with his kids and grandkids. I hope his example inspires other retirees to focus on what matters most in life; first, relationship with God, and second, with loved ones. One of his sayings that often comes to my mind is, and helped me to love the people I'm with, is this: "It's not what you do, it's who you're with"!

Heavenly Father, please bless all our fathers, and father-figures including priests, with your love. Thank you for the ways they reflected your fatherhood, providence, and care. Thank you for the ways they helped me to grow in love for God and neighbor. For all the ways my earthly father did not live up to his calling, I choose to forgive him in the Name of Jesus. Amen!

National Eucharistic Revival

Can you possibly offer one hour per month to draw down graces for our community and world? Wign up for a monthly holy hour on First Fridays at St. John Church. St. Mother Teresa said, "People ask me: 'What will convert America and save the world?' My answer is prayer. What we need is for every parish to come before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament in holy hours of prayer.”

Some Holy Humor

Mary was surprised to receive $10 from her uncle for her birthday. The uncle asked how she was going to spend it. Mary said, “I’m taking it to Sunday School to put in the offering. God’s gonna be just as surprised as I was at not getting a dollar like usual!”

Poem by Yours Truly:

Let the Little Children Come To Me

The Rabbi cried, “Let all the little children come to me!”

Each mother gently nudged her tyke towards Him from her side

The young ones – crawling, toddling, running – flocked to Him, carefree

His arms, as would be later, opened wide

A toddler reached her eager arms to be picked up and blessed

The Rabbi gladly gathered her beneath His wing’d embrace

She nestled, resting list’ning ear upon His whisp’ring chest

That with each beat repeats His Love and Grace

A rowdy boy felt waves of joy flow from this Teacher’s Heart

He plunged his sunburnt face within the worn and tassled shawl

Then sobbed, surprised! discov’ring Love he knew would not depart

Despite his earthly father’s tragic fall

A girl stood distant, downcast, feeling worthless and ashamed

She would not trust this stranger, for her heart concealed a scar

With longing gaze, she watched the care the other kids had claimed

While the Rabbi’s eyes went searching near and far

Her look then locked with His! She froze, amazed He’d seek her out

He called her name and bid her join her happy younger peers

She felt a surge of hope that purged her fears and drowned her doubt

His eyes sent peace that ceased her bitter tears

As she approached, each step He coaxed with-His smile broad and bright

Its radiance removed her shame and proved to her, her worth

He held her tight and told her, “You are precious in my sight”

Her scar was healed! This moment, her rebirth

Throughout the years that followed all the youth retold their story

How Love-in-Person held them in His arms, and in His gaze

And how this holding freed the girl, refurbishing her glory

Yet He’s held the child-like ones in every age

This Healer still repeats His plea, “Come unto Me” and rest

To restless ones whose guilt and pride give rise to hopeless pain

“Unless you be converted and become like little children

You’ll never enter into Heaven’s Reign”

“To Jesus Through Mary” -Fr. Nate

“ ... you are a priest forever.” Psalm 110:4

When priests retire, they don't just stop ministering. Their vocations to serve God's people does not "end." They continue to serve in a variety of ways.

Some serve as sacramental ministers for parishes that do not have full-time priests. Others step in when an "active priest" is ill or away. They often continue presiding at Masses, celebrating sacraments, teaching, offering counsel and faithfully supporting parishioners well into their retirement years.

But, despite their continuing service, unlike most retired people, retired priests no longer receive a portion of their previous salary or benefits. When they answered the call from Christ to become priest, they also placed their faith in God that He would provide for them in their later years.

The Catholic Diocese of Saginaw Priests' Retirement Fund provides pensions to our priests after they retire from full-time ministry. This special collection builds funds for priests who are currently retired and for those who will retire in the future.

Your gift to the Priests' Retirement Fund is your way to support those who have served, and continue to serve, you and your parish family.

Your gift goes directly to the Catholic Diocese of Saginaw's priests' pension plan, where it is invested and held in a trust account, which is administered by the Michigan Catholic Conference.

The pension plan provides for the monthly pension and medical benefits of our currently retired priests and helps fund the future retirement of our active priests.

SUPPORTING OUR RETIRED PRIESTS

Saying a priest is retired requires a little explanation. They don't stop being priests, but they do retire from full-time ministry. That means they are no longer responsible for the administration of a parish. They continue to serve by being sacramental ministers, covering for priests who are sick or taking a little time off, being involved in diocesan committees, and mentoring recently ordained priests.

When a priest is in full-time ministry his salary and housing are provided by the parish. In retirement the priest is responsible for his own housing. That means paying a mortgage or rent, paying utilities, furnishings, food and all the other costs that are associated with maintaining a place to live.

Retired priests have three sources of income: Social Security, their pension, and the income from their own investments. Since they have paid into Social Security, they are eligible for Medicare. The Diocese of Saginaw Priests' Retirement Fund provides their pension, a Humana Medicare Supplemental Plan, dental insurance and auto insurance. Our diocese started a 403b plan for priests in 2002 to encourage priests to save for retirement by including some matching funds from the parish. A fourth source of income for a retired priest, if his health is good, is to help out in parishes.

The Diocese of Saginaw Priests' Retirement Fund provides a significant portion of a retired priest's income. Your support of the Father's Day Collection helps to ensure the strength of the retirement fund for those priests retired now and those who will retire in the future.

Thank you and God bless you!
