NEW PARISH VISION STATEMENT

Good Shepherd Parish will be a community where every member is on fire with the Truth. We will be guided by the Holy Spirit and will be a force for God's mission. We will be strengthened through our worship, participation in the Sacraments, lifelong faith formation, study of the Word, and fellowship with one another, our neighbors, and beyond. We will show our love by being the hands and feet of Christ and sharing our joy with our community, our diocese, and our world.

In This Sunday's Readings

"Then he asked them, 'Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?'" – Mark 4:40

It is easy to say that we have faith and that believe in God and his plan for us when we are in church for Sunday or Holy Day Mass or with others who are like-minded to us. But do you live your faith every day? Pray about it. How can you let Jesus teach you and preach to you this week?

Dear Saint-in-the-Making,
Happy Lord's Day!

I'll be on vacation till July 5. The first week at a campground on Long Lake in Alpena with my dad, siblings, their kids, and other relatives. We'll swim, fish, boat, go tubing, play board games, have s'mores, etc. Most importantly, I'll offer Mass each day in the campground game room. The second week I'll visit friends from college.

Prayer of St. Jean Vianney

"My Jesus, from all eternity you were pleased to give yourself to us in love. And you planted within us a deep spiritual desire that can only be satisfied by yourself. I may go from here to the other end of the world, from one country to another, from riches to greater riches, from pleasure to pleasure, and still I shall not be content. All the world cannot satisfy the immortal soul. It would be like trying to feed a starving man with a single grain of wheat. We can only be satisfied by setting our hearts, imperfect as they are, on you. We are made to love you; you created us as your lovers. It sometimes happens that the more we know a neighbor, the less we love him. But with you it is quite the opposite. The more we know you, the more we love you. Knowledge of you kindles such a fire in our souls that we have no energy left for worldly desires. My Jesus, how good it is to love you. Let me be like your disciples on Mount Tabor, seeing nothing else but you. Let us be like two bosom friends, neither of whom can ever bear to offend the other." —St. Jean Vianney

Planting Mustard Seeds by Invitation

"Holy Spirit, please show me who to invite to consider becoming Catholic by joining the OCIA (formerly RCIA) this fall." At this point, there is no one signed up for OCIA this fall. I'm counting on parishioners to invite people. In the new translation of the OCIA book released this fall, we will pray, "To you, most merciful Father, we give thanks for these your servants, because they have already been searching for you, who in diverse ways have gone ahead of them and knocked at their door, and because they have answered your call today in our presence." Is God calling you to be His instrument to knock on someone's door- i.e. invite them- to OCIA this fall?

"To Jesus Through Mary" -Love, Fr. Nate

We Are All Called to be Saints

Imprimatur: +James A McNulty Bishop of Paterson, April 1, 1958

1 If possible, attend daily Mass and secure God's blessing on your work.

2 Bear daily annoyances in a spirit of resignation in your imitation of the Mother of Sorrows.

3 You are aching to tell a bit of news. Wait an hour; it will keep.

4 Are you in bad humor? Laugh if possible.

5 When you hear the clock strike, repeat the indulgenced prayer, "Divine Heart of Jesus, convert sinners, save the dying and release souls from purgatory."

6 Do you wish to avoid certain persons? Say a little prayer and put yourself in the way to meet them. God goes before you. (Only if the person is not an occasion of sin for you.)

7 Do Good to souls of others by a kind word of encouragement, or a prayer softly said.

8 Should you feel inclined to make uncharitable remarks, let your words instead be kind and considerate.

9 You are tempted to eat or drink between meals. Abstain in honor of your mortified Savior.

10 Attend Benediction whenever you can.

11 Make the Stations of the Cross when you can.

12 Are you tempted to be angry? Conquer yourself for the love of your meek and gentle Savior.

13 When you have time, go before the Blessed Sacrament, and make a Holy Hour of reparation.

14 You are inclined to say your prayers hurriedly. Take time; prolong them reverently.

15 Offer an extra Holy Communion for those who are dear to you.

16 Bear with the failings of others if you wish Jesus to be patient with you.

17 You are disposed to complain when you suffer. Thank Jesus for granting you a splinter of His Cross and endure silently.

18 Often make the Sign of the Cross and use Holy Water. Give the indulgence to the souls in Purgatory.

19 Let no day pass without saying a decade of the Rosary for the conversion of sinners.

20 Practice self-forgetfulness and consider the interests of others.

21 Frequently during the day make a Spiritual Communion – say often; "My God, I love Thee and desire to receive Thee into my poor heart."

22 Say a decade of the Rosary for the sick, those in affliction, and for the aching hearts throughout the world.

23 Try to cultivate devotion to Our Lord's Passion.

24 Confide to God your anxieties for your family. Ask Jesus what to do and say.
