NEW PARISH VISION STATEMENT

Good Shepherd Parish will be a community where every member is on fire with the Truth. We will be guided by the Holy Spirit and will be a force for God's mission. We will be strengthened through our worship, participation in the Sacraments, lifelong faith formation, study of the Word, and fellowship with one another, our neighbors, and beyond. We will show our love by being the hands and feet of Christ and sharing our joy with our community, our diocese, and our world.

"He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." Mark 6:31

In the busyness of today's world, it is easy to get so caught up in "things" that we don't take time to "listen" to God in silence. We cannot hear His call to us and His intended mission and ministry for our lives if we don't slow down to open our minds to hearing God.

Happy Lord's Day!

Our Lord, the Giver of every good gift, gave me the opportunity to join Bishop Gruss and others at the National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis (my dad and I went July 18-19). I'll report on that later.

Praying for you daily! Please pray for me.

Supporting Senior Priests & Seminarians in the Diocese of Saginaw

Fr. Charles L. Ganley Memorial Endowment Fund for Priests & Seminarians

The Fr. Charles L. Ganley Memorial Endowment Fund for Priests & Seminarians was established in 2009 to support men of God who have dedicated their lives to the Priesthood and the Diocese of Saginaw. Fr. Charles L. Ganley served as pastor at numerous parishes across Michigan throughout his career before his retirement in 1996. His estate established this fund “in gratitude to a man who spent a lifetime serving God and His people through his ministry as a priest.”

When priests retire from the priesthood, many continue to serve their parishes and communities in a diverse number of ways such as volunteering, providing administrative support, or aiding in sacramental ministries. Many senior priests, if not assigned to a specific parish, remain on-call for any needs related to parish life or supporting current pastors. However, towards the end of life many of these men face challenges due to mobility limitations, cognitive decline, or medical concerns. While priests receive generous retirement packages and are often able to access resources through these retirement plans, in some cases retired priests find themselves experiencing financial insecurity and benefit from supplemental financial support to improve their quality of life. The Fr. Charles L. Ganley Memorial Endowment Fund for Priests & Seminarians helps to meet these needs.

Fr. José Maria Cabrera, pastor of All Saints Parish in Bay City, has embraced his calling to serve senior priests in the Diocese of Saginaw, inspired by his own background supporting dozens of retired priests and providing end-of-life care in their time of need.

Fr. José regularly supports retired priests by providing guidance and insight to both them and their families towards the end of life. This includes helping make care decisions, connecting with necessary resources, and being a source of companionship.

“I am the bridge between the family of the priest and the Diocese,” Fr. José continued. “This service has helped me to grow in my love for the priesthood.”

Fr. José states that he is often the person who stays with retired priests in their last moments, and has received powerful insight by asking these men for advice regarding the priesthood. “It’s beautiful preparing a man of God for eternity.”

“I’m grateful that Fr. Ganley thought of his fellow senior priests who may be in difficult financial situations, and I’m grateful for anyone who has, or would like to, supplement this fund in the event that our senior priests are in need.”

Father José Maria Cabrera

Priest & Religious Retirement Endowment Fund

“The priesthood is the love of the heart of Jesus. When you see a priest, think of our Lord Jesus Christ.”

-St. John Vianney-

The Priest & Religious Retirement Endowment Fund, managed by the Catholic Community Foundation of Mid-Michigan, was established with the purpose of providing financial support to retired priests and religious who have exhausted financial resources offered through the Diocesan Priests' Retirement Fund or their respective religious orders' retirement plans.

This endowment was established in 2008 by the then Bishop of the Diocese of Saginaw, Reverend Robert J. Carlson, and funded through the generous donations of community members and matched funds from Catholic Federal Credit Union. From its inception over 15 years ago, this endowment's purpose has been to provide resources that support retired priests and religious' quality of life in gratitude and acknowledgement of their lifetime commitment to serving Christ, their parishes, and their community.

On Father's Day, consider donating to the Priest and Religious Retirement Endowment Fund collection at your parish to support seasoned priests who have dedicated their lives to the priesthood and religious life!

We would love to help you give through the CCFMM to your favorite Parish or beloved Ministry. Contact Kristin Smith, Executive Director, at Kristin.Smith@ccfmm.org to learn more!

Are you passionate about putting your Catholic faith into action? Do you want to play an active role in supporting the future of your parish, Catholic school, diocese, or favorite ministry?
