NEW PARISH VISION STATEMENT

Good Shepherd Parish will be a community where every member is on fire with the Truth. We will be guided by the Holy Spirit and will be a force for God's mission. We will be strengthened through our worship, participation in the Sacraments, lifelong faith formation, study of the Word, and fellowship with one another, our neighbors, and beyond. We will show our love by being the hands and feet of Christ and sharing our joy with our community, our diocese, and our world.

In This Sunday's Readings

"Anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward." – Mark 9:41

Belonging to Christ means that we love and support one another. No one is greater than another. We are His kingdom on earth. Do you see and treat others, no matter their background, financial status or worldly possessions as such? Do others see the face of Christ in you? Consider those questions and talk to Jesus about them

Why does our Parish Exist?
God Wants His World Back!

Our mission: to cooperate with Christ in saving souls; to sabotage the "kingdom of darkness" (Col 1:13)

Our weapons: evangelization, testimonies, prayer, offered-up sufferings, Mass, Confession, Scripture, forgiveness, etc.

[Priest-waiters at Bishop's fundraiser for seminarians at Doubletree in Bay City]

Dear Missionary Disciple,
One of my hobbies on my day off, or on vacation, is to write poetry to honor God and to evangelize. I pray that God might use the poems for the salvation of souls. I hope God speaks to you through the poems I occasionally publish in this bulletin letter, and invite you to evangelize by sharing these poems with others. Here's a recent poems I worked really hard on (best read out loud):

To Know And To Be Known

In grandpa's dotting gaze Your rays of hope infused the twinkle
In those crinkles 'round his eyes Your smile I saw
I embraced and held a newborn and beheld
Your starlit face
Felt grateful for this grace
Struck with awe

Through mother's firm massage Your hands caressed my heart's distresses
Through my messes, father's patience showed Your own
When a stranger asked about my life I

gushed too much to mention
Knew his, and Your, attention
Deeply known

The mailman's warm, endearing "Hi!"
envoiced Your cheery tenor
Through a tender nurse's words Your Heart resounded
In a note from my old friend Your tone broke through and gently gripped me
From dread and doubt it stripped me
Peace compounded

The beauty of the dancer's form displayed
Your subtle splendor
As she rendered Swan Lakes's leaps Your thrill I sensed
In a teacher's love for a boy with special needs I caught Your caring
Infecting my despairing
Joy commenced
*****

There were many Scriptures that inspired this poem, including:
"You will seek Me and find Me when you seek Me with all your heart." Jeremiah 29:13
"Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him." John 14:21
"My beloved stands behind our wall, gazing through the windows, peering through the lattice" Song of Songs 2

Good News: to become an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion (EMHC) at Mass or for the homebound, parishioners no longer are required to attend a diocesan training, but they need to attend a training at their parish. Contact me for info, "To Jesus through Mary",
Love, Fr. Nate
