In This Sunday's Readings

"Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth; but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood. Mark 12: 43-44

This passage clearly illustrates stewardship giving. When financially supporting the Church we are called to contribute as our means allow, but not from our "surplus." Intentional and generous giving should not be an afterthought. Review your support of the Church and ask if you are giving from your surplus or it is from your livelihood.

We received 100 names of men and women who have or who will receive letters encouraging them in their life of following Jesus. The online Called By Name nomination form remains open if you would like to submit a name in the future. The form can be found on the Diocese of Saginaw website at: <https://saginaw.org/20by2030> or copies are available at the parish.

Respect Life Formation

A 6 week baby- ectopic pregnancy- in amniotic sac (presumably removed to save the mother's life- this procedure is not an "abortion") "At the stage of life shown on the front, the baby's heart has been beating for three weeks already. The foundations of the brain, spinal cord and nervous system were even before that. Two weeks ago, tiny arms followed a few days later. A week ago, the color developed in baby's eyes. Right now fingers and toes are making their appearance and the brain is developing 3 parts: one to experience emotion and understand language, one for hearing, and one for seeing."

“Life with Christ is a wonderful adventure”

(Pope St. John Paul II)

Our mission: to cooperate with Christ in saving souls; to sabotage the “kingdom of darkness” (Col 1:13)

Our weapons: evangelization, testimonies, prayer, offered-up sufferings, Mass, Confession, Scripture, forgiveness, etc.

Dear “Disciple on Mission”,
If you’re early to Mass, consider marinating in the readings in the hymnal and prayers in the prayer section in the middle. I need to address something for the sake of building community in our parish, which is one of our three “parish priorities”. (Holy Spirit please help me and help my readers!) I invite us to pay close attention to the pronouns we use in referring to fellow parishioners. Sometimes I hear parishioners refer to fellow parishioners as “they/them” instead of “we/us.” Also, all our church sites and Mass times and events are “ours”, rather than “theirs.” St. John, St. Ignatius, St. Joseph, St. Columbkille are “our” churches, part of “our” parish. All Good Shepherd Parish Mass times and events are “our” Mass times and events. For example, rather than saying “their Youth Mass”, please say, “our Youth Mass.” Thank you for all you do to build community in our parish, including using proper pronouns.

Here's a poem I invite you to meditate on. I beg the Holy Spirit to help you come to “come to know and believe the love God has for [you]” ... (1 Jn 4:16)

Someone is Smitten

What if I hinted that Someone is smitten?
Head over heels
Who loves without quittin’

And cares for you more than a kid for her kitten
Just savagely smitten with you

What if I mentioned you’re now on His mind?
Not once in a while
But all of the time
With eyes for you only! Since you He designed
And loved before earth was unearthed

What if I stuttered that by you He’s lovestruck?
Aflame with affection
And for you, was nailstruck
A Soulmate for life; not just any ol’ schmuck
Whose stricken heart quickens for you

What if this Lover is something undreamed of “Pazzo d’amore” (1)
Crazy with love
He’d give life and limb for you, push came to shove
In fact, so He did, long ago

What if I said that this Friend is besotted?
“Drunk” with devotion (1)
Cross-eyed, He fought
Through death, He unblotted our souls by sin spotted
Through love, He’s now plotting to conquer

What if I mentioned this “Bridegroom” has named you
His “Chosen”; His “Crown”?
His “own” He has claimed you
To silence, He summons you, there to invite
To prep you for that moment He’ll send
When your “winter” and “rains”

Will come to an end (2)
He'll beckon again, Come to me (3)
On a cross I was smitten
WITH thee and FOR thee
My spouse, my beloved, my friend
*****

(1) St. Catherine of Siena: "You, high eternal Trinity, acted as if You were drunk with love, infatuated with Your creature.. You, Sweetness itself, stooped to join Yourself with our bitterness. You, Splendor, joined Yourself with darkness; You, Wisdom with foolishness; You, Life with death; You, the Infinite, with us who are finite. What drove you to this?"

(2) Solomon 2:11

(3) John 7:37; Isaiah 55:1

For All saints Day, one of our parish families, the Roth family, went to Mass dressed up as some of our brothers and sisters in heaven, a.k.a. the Saints! Can you guess who each one is? I was able to guess a few. They told me all their names (here intentionally not in order, so that you can guess who is who!): Blessed Chiara Badano, St. Isaac, St. Rita, St. Peter, the Blessed Mother, Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati, St. Anne, St. Helen, St. Margaret of Scotland (pray for us!).

Here's a photo of the holy woman I preached about last weekend, Blessed Benedetta Bianchi Porro. After losing all five of her senses and being paralyzed except for her left hand, she told those who visited her, "I do not lack hope. I know that at the end of the road, Jesus is waiting for me. . . . I have discovered that God exists, that He is love, faithfulness, joy, certitude, to the end of the ages. My days are not easy. They are hard. But sweet because Jesus is with me." Through her intercession, may we learn to suffer well by offering our suffering to Jesus for the conversion of sinners and for other intentions. Perhaps you or someone you know isn't happy with the election of certain politicians; if so, offer up your sufferings (including intentional fasts) for those politicians, for their deeper conversion to Christ!

Bl. Benedetta Bianchi Porro, and all you holy men and women in heaven, pray for us, that we might join you and Jesus one day!

"To Jesus through Mary"
Love, Fr. Nate

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT WORKING ON THE MARGINS

The Catholic Church teaches the fundamental importance of paying workers a living wage that allows them to meet their basic needs. Cooperative businesses are co-owned by the employees, which gives workers greater say in how the business is run, including the wages and salaries that workers earn. Those principles animate the work of the organizations creating opportunities and fighting poverty with support from the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD).

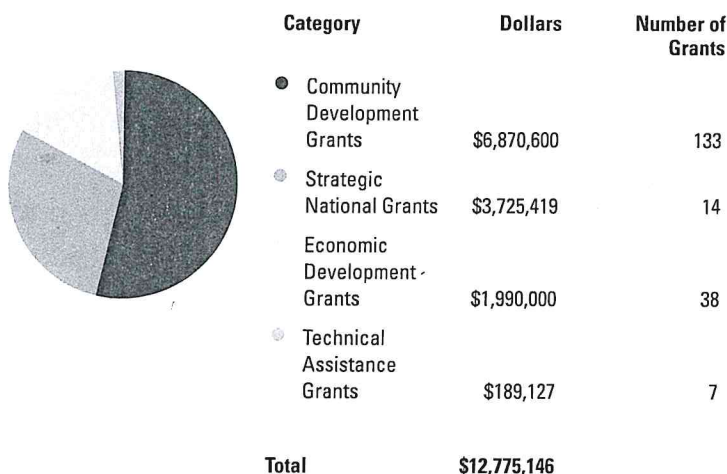

Seed Commons is a New York City-based national network of community loan funds that make cooperative businesses easier to start and less expensive than obtaining bank loans. Based on a “nonextractive” model, Seed Commons does not require borrowers to make payments on interest or principal until they can cover operating expenses, including market-rate salaries. With support from CCHD, Seed Commons helps workers become cooperative owners who earn living wages at companies like a Chicago-based window manufacturer, which pays $2/hour more than it did before it became a cooperative. The employee-owners now earn not only higher wages but profit-sharing checks as well.

Your support of CCHD helps workers become worker-owners who earn living wages and establish economic roots in communities that badly need greater employment and earning opportunities. When you give to the CCHD collection, you help not only national networks like Seed Commons but also organizations working to end poverty within your diocese, where 25% of your contribution stays to create opportunities in your own neighborhood.

To learn more about the collection for the CCHD and the way CCHD upholds the moral and social teachings of the Catholic Church, visit www.usccb.org/cchd.

CAMPAÑA CATÓLICA PARA EL DESARROLLO HUMANO TRABAJANDO DESDE LA PERIFERIA

La Iglesia Católica enseña la importancia fundamental de pagar a los trabajadores un sueldo digno que les permita satisfacer sus necesidades básicas. En el caso de las empresas cooperativas, los empleados son copropietarios, lo cual brinda a los trabajadores una mayor participación en la manera en que se maneja la empresa, incluyendo los sueldos y los salarios que ganan los trabajadores. Estos principios alientan la labor de las organizaciones, creando oportunidades y luchando contra la pobreza con el apoyo de la Campaña Católica para el Desarrollo Humano (CCHD).

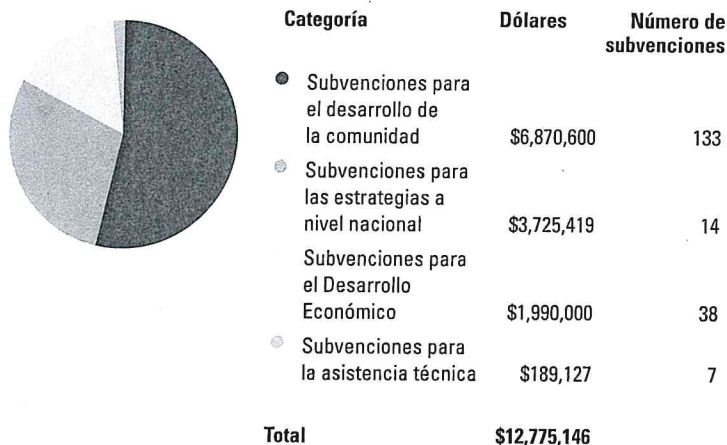

Seed Commons es una red nacional de fondos de préstamos comunitarios, situada en la ciudad de Nueva York, la cual facilita el inicio de empresas cooperativas y les resulta menos costoso que obtener préstamos bancarios. Seed Commons, basado en un modelo “no extractivo”, no les exige a los prestatarios que hagan sus pagos sobre los intereses y el principal hasta que ellos puedan cubrir sus gastos de operación, incluyendo salarios a tasa de mercado. Con el apoyo de CCHD, Seed Commons ayuda a los trabajadores a convertirse en propietarios de cooperativas los cuales ganan salarios dignos en empresas como la de un fabricante de ventanas con sede en Chicago, la cual les paga $2 más por hora que antes de convertirse en cooperativa. Los empleados-propietarios hoy ganan no solo sueltos más altos, sino que también reciben cheques por el reparto de utilidades.

El apoyo de ustedes a CCHD ayuda a los trabajadores a convertirse en trabajadores-propietarios que ganan sueldos dignos y establecen raíces económicas en comunidades que necesitan urgentemente mayores oportunidades de empleos y de ingresos. Cuando ustedes contribuyen a la colecta de CCHD, están ayudando no solo a redes nacionales como Seed Commons, sino también a organizaciones que trabajan para erradicar la pobreza dentro de su misma diócesis, en donde el 25% de sus contribuciones permanece allí para crear oportunidades en sus propias vecindades.

Para informarse más acerca de la colecta para CCHD y la forma en que CCHD defiende las enseñanzas morales y sociales de la Iglesia Católica, visiten www.usccb.org/cchd.
