FEBRUARY

Month of the Holy Family

MARCH

St. Joseph

→ Holy Father's February Intention:

Let us pray that the ecclesial community might welcome the desires and doubts of those young people who feel a call to serve Christ's mission in the priesthood and religious life.

→ Holy Father's March Intention:

Let us pray that we may experience the sacrament of reconciliation with renewed depth, to taste the infinite mercy of God.

NEW PARISH VISION STATEMENT

Good Shepherd Parish will be a community where every member is on fire with the Truth. We will be guided by the Holy Spirit and will be a force for God's mission. We will be strengthened through our worship, participation in the Sacraments, lifelong faith formation, study of the Word, and fellowship with one another, our neighbors, and beyond. We will show our love by being the hands and feet of Christ and sharing our joy with our community, our diocese, and our world.

What to do with old palms?

Don't throw away, they're blessed! (Canon #1171).
OPTIONS: (1) return to office or leave at church; (2) decorate your home, tuck behind Christian art; Lacy at CatholicLiving.com has excellent ideas on what to do with old palms. They are a constant reminder of Jesus' love; (3) burn or bury to return them to the earth in a respectful way. Don't burn with rest of trash but separately, then spread in garden or somewhere out of the way.

It's that time of year again. We have started working on turning plastic bags into mats for the homeless every Tuesday at the parish center starting at 9am. Come see what it's all about and a good time to beat the winter doldrums.

Idle Hands? We have an elderly couple that cuts strips for us their home. You could help out by typing/looping the strips into the plarn balls (plastic yarn) for the crocheters. They work so fast we can't keep up! Once you see how to do it (which only takes minutes to learn) you can do this at your home while watching tv. Contact Lori Osentoski for instructions (989) 375-4281

Please use our prayer community to help your loved ones!

"Life with Christ is a wonderful adventure"

(Pope St. John Paul II)

Diocesan Mission: "To courageously proclaim the transforming power of the gospel so that Christ Jesus may lead people to salvation through his healing, love and mercy." Our Weapons: evangelization, sharing CCRR, prayer, offered-up sufferings, Mass, Confession, Scripture, forgiveness

Implementation Team (Note: the ENTIRE parish, every parishioner, will soon be members of the team, when we have the kickoff of our parish plan!); catechist Amy Sweeney's faith formation class sporting cool new parish shirts (the back says "Catholic"); faith formation adoration at St. John- Jesus is thrilled to shine His light from His Presence in the Eucharist into the kids' hearts!

Dear Disciple, Happy Lord's Day!

We're sad the Lions lost. What if the coach was asked, what's your goal? And he said, "to win a few games." He would be fired, right? He better say, "to win the super bowl!!!" What's the goal of the Christian? TO SAVE SOULS, first his own and then others, by leading them to the Savior, Jesus Christ. In other words, to cooperate with Jesus in His ongoing mission of saving souls. What is the mission of this and every parish? TO SAVE SOULS. What is the reason we repair our churches? TO SAVE SOULS. What is faith formation, bible study, and everything we do in our parish for? TO SAVE SOULS. Every soul within our parish boundaries was created for heaven. Will we help them get there in every way we can? Will we fulfil the mission Jesus gives us?

Are you praying daily for your pastor and bishop? I'm doing my best to save souls, but I often make mistakes. It's humiliating how often I do. The Lord is teaching me humility and purifying me of the sin of perfectionism, which is based in pride. I forget to consult the right people. Or I'm impulsive. I forget little things often... must be getting old! (my younger siblings would say I am!). If you ask me to do something, and I agree, or at least say, "I'll pray about it," and I don't put it in my phone, then please ask me to, or I will likely forget.

As a pastor, I'm required to get involved in, or at least be aware of, almost everything going on in our parish, and to gain a basic understanding of things I never imagined I would need to know. A priest is an expert in the spiritual life and evangelization and catechesis, and thank God is NOT required to become an expert in plumbing, finances, spreadsheets, window repair, cemeteries, etc. Thank God for all the parishioners and staff who are realizing their call to be co-responsible for this parish, besides me. It is your parish. Do you feel a sense of ownership and responsibility for it? Do you want to help? Do you want to get involved?

There are so many things on my mind all the time, and so I never skip my day off for mental, physical, and spiritual health. The devil tempts me to get frustrated and discouraged and to give up, but I won't give up with the grace of God which comes from my prayer life AND your prayers for me.

I don't say these things because I want pity, but I do want, and desperately need, your prayers. The devil has a large target in my back, because I'm a captain in the spiritual battle for souls, and you are the foot soldiers. The bishop is the general, so pray for both him and me daily, I beg you. Please start praying for us daily if you are not already. Thank you!

I know that no act of love is a waste in His kingdom. My favorite verse is, "God works ALL things to the good for those who love Him" (Romans 8:28). Therefore, NO act of love is without eternal consequences and rewards. When I make a mistake, I pray, "Jesus bring a greater good out of that!"

Pray for parish OCIA candidates

Please pray for Lea, Aubree, and Taylor preparing for the Easter sacraments, and for their parents and sponsors and teachers to be models of love for Jesus, Mary, the Eucharist, etc. Thank you!

Some Holy Humor

"One day Groucho Marx was getting off an elevator and he happened to meet a clergyman. The clergyman came up to him, put out his hand and said, 'I want to thank you for all the joy you've put into the world.' Groucho shook hands and replied, 'Thank you, Reverend. I want to thank you for all the joy you've taken out of it.'

[Note: this is humorous because it shows the stereotype that faith is boring, joyless, etc. The opposite should be true! Christians should be the most joyful and humorous people! Remember to smile and welcome any guests you notice at Mass!]

Jubilee Year of Hope

The sin of complaining destroys hope. Last year, when I was chaplain to a pilgrimage in Spain, I told our group, "what are the three main rules of a pilgrimage? No complaining, no complaining, and... no complaining." They laughed! Pilgrimages are not vacations; they are full of hardships and sufferings, just like life. We are following Christ, who said, "Whoever wishes to follow me must deny himself, take up his cross daily, and follow me." Life itself is a pilgrimage. Our Pope is reminding us that Jesus wants us to be pilgrims of HOPE! How will you spread HOPE and JOY and positive HUMOR this week? Holy Spirit, give us the fruit of HOPE!

EVENING PRAYER (see last bulletin for morning prayer) By my friend Lorraine del Prado

EXAMEN SECTION:

REQUEST THE SPIRIT: Through your Holy Spirit, help me, Lord, to examine my thoughts, feelings and actions today through your eyes...

RELISH THE GOOD: Thank you so much, Lord, for your hand in everything that made this day joyful, beautiful, and meaningful...

REVIEW: I saw your presence today in ... My eyes were opened to (new learnings and insights)

REPENT: Here are the ways that I have sinned or failed to live up to your instruction. Please forgive me for my shortcomings and sins.

RESOLVE: Guide and inspire me to be better tomorrow. I would specifically appreciate your help in ...

As I close my eyes and prepare to rest, I come before you with a heart full of gratitude. Thank you for the blessings of this day – for the moments of joy, the challenges that have strengthened me, and the love that surrounds me.

Lord, I entrust my loved ones into your hands. Watch over them, protect them, and bless them with your love. I also lift those who are hurting or in need, asking for your healing touch and comfort. As I lay down to sleep, I trust you, O Lord. Grant me wisdom and discernment for the days ahead. Thank you, Father, for your unfailing love and grace.

You are the God who created me and therefore know what I need most. As I lay me down to sleep, relax the tension of my body; calm the restlessness of my mind; still the thoughts which worry and perplex me. Help me to rest myself and all my problems in your strong and loving arms.

Let your Spirit speak to my mind and heart while I am asleep, so that, when I wake up in the morning, I may find that I have received in the night-time, light for my way; strength for my tasks; peace for my worries; forgiveness for my sins. Grant me a peaceful sleep tonight, and tomorrow the power to live according to your will.

Love, Fr. Nate*
