Month of the Holy Souls in Purgatory

. . . . . .

DECEMBER

The Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary

→ Holy Father's November Intention:
For the Proper Use of Wealth
Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service of the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

→ Holy Father's December Intention:
For Single-Parent Families
Let us pray for families experiencing the absence of a mother or father, that they may find support and accompaniment in the Church, and help and strength in the Faith during difficult times.

PARISH VISION STATEMENT

Good Shepherd Parish will be a community where every member is on fire with the Truth. We will be guided by the Holy Spirit and will be a force for God's mission. We will be strengthened through our worship, participation in the Sacraments, lifelong faith formation, study of the Word, and fellowship with one another, our neighbors, and beyond. We will show our love by being the hands and feet of Christ and sharing our joy with our community, our diocese, and our world.

Parishioner Evelyn Wruble celebrated her 95th birthday with a cake after mass at fellowship this past Sunday. God Bless You Evelyn!

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

This Sunday Gospel presents us with the beautiful parable of the talents. A man, before going on a journey, entrusts his property to three servants. To one he gives five talents, to another two, and to the third one talent, each according to his ability.

The first two servants work hard and double what they have received. But the third servant, out of fear, buries his talent in the ground.

When the master returns, he praises the first two servants with the same words: "Well done, good and faithful servant. Come and share your master's joy."

But he condemns the servant who buried his talent.

This Gospel teaches us three important lessons.

1. Everything we have is a gift from God.

Our talents, education, intelligence, time, wealth, family, and opportunities are gifts entrusted to us by God. Nobody is without a gift. Some people have the talent to sing, others to teach, others to lead, encourage, serve, and care for the poor. God does not expect everyone to have the same talents. He expects us to use whatever we have received faithfully.

2. Do not bury your talents out of fear.

The third servant buried his talent because he was afraid. Sometimes we also bury our talents. We are afraid of failure, criticism, responsibility, or what others might think.

We may have the ability to help someone, serve the Church, forgive another person, or reach out to someone in need, but we hesitate.

Dear friends, God does not want us to live in fear. He wants us to use our gifts with courage, love, and generosity.

3. We must be accountable to God.

One day, each of us will stand before God and give an account of how we have lived our lives. The important question will not be how much money we earned, how famous we became, or how many possessions we collected.

Rather, God will ask us how faithfully we used the gifts He entrusted to us.

Did we use our talents to build His Kingdom? Did we bring happiness to others? Did we serve our family and community? Did we care for those who were suffering?

Conclusion

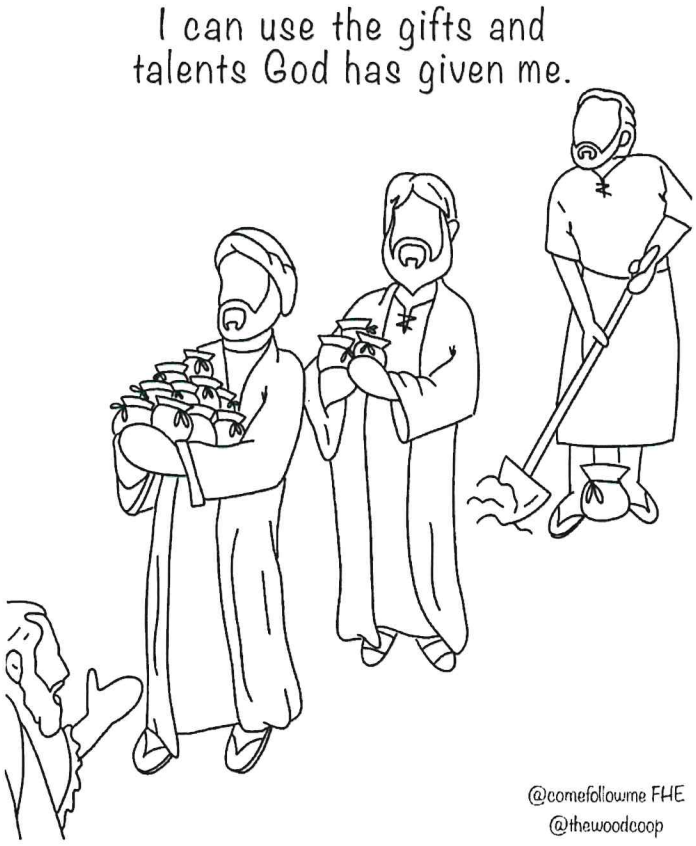

Dear brothers and sisters, Christianity is not about simply preserving what we have received. It is about making those gifts fruitful for the glory of God and the good of others.

Let us not compare ourselves with others or become discouraged because we have fewer talents. Even a small gift, when offered with great love, can make a tremendous difference.

May we one day hear those beautiful words from our Lord:

"Well done, good and faithful servant. Come and share your master's joy."

Father Kumar

But the fruit of the Spirit is:

Love, joy, peace,
patience, kindness,
goodness, faithfulness,
gentleness, self - control

Against such things there is no law.

Marriage Preparation Facilitator Training & Certification: Would you like to enhance your parish marriage preparation ministry? An assessment tool like Prepare & Enrich is an important part of the marriage preparation process. This training is suitable for lay individuals, married couples, and clergy. As part of the training, each participant will learn how to administer the online assessment, interpret the couples' report, offer feedback, teach relationship skills, and work effectively with engaged and married couples. Father would like 1 or 2 couples to volunteer for this training which will be scheduled at a later date. Good Shepherd will cover cost of training. If interested or curious call the parish office at 989-658-8824 or ask Fr. Kumar.
